BASIC INFORMATION

PURPOSE OF SNU EXTRAVAGANZA

To reach students for Christ through mind, body, and spirit, and expose them to a positive Christian atmosphere on the campus of Southern Nazarene University.

SPONSORSHIP

SNU Extravaganza is sponsored by the South Central Field USA Nazarene Youth International. All decisions regarding programming, accommodations, rules, and regulations are made by the South Central Field USA NYI. This Council consists of NYI Presidents from each of ten districts of the region, Student Representatives, a District Superintendent Representative, and SNU personnel. The Council is led by a Field NYI President that is elected by the Field Caucus at the Global NYI Convention.

Regional Extravaganza is hosted each year by Southern Nazarene University. The University offers its facilities and necessary personnel to facilitate the event each year. It is a joint effort between the University and the South Central Field NYI Council.

Suggestions and comments regarding Extravaganza should be directed to your District NYI President to be presented to the Field NYI Council or Regional NYI President.

REQUIREMENTS OF PARTICIPATION

Extravaganza participants must be in grades 6 through 12. Many categories of competition offer both Junior High and Senior High age levels. Junior High students are considered 6-8 grades. If a student is 15 years old or older at the beginning of his/her 8th grade year he/she will be considered a Sr. High student.

Sr. High students are considered 9-12 grades. If a student is 19 years old or older at the beginning of his/her 12th grade year, he/she is not eligible to participate in Extravaganza competitions.

Students may participate in only one team sporting event. Quizzing is considered a team event and as such quizzers may not participate in team sporting events. Students may NOT participate in a different team sport/tournament IF their original team is eliminated from their tournament. They may participate in multiple individual sports and/or talent competition as the schedule allows.

SPONSOR GUIDELINES

Each district is responsible for close supervision of its participants and must provide one (1) adult for every ten (10) students. Sponsors should insure all students are in attendance at all worship services, on time to all events they are participating in, obey all curfew guidelines, and exhibit positive Christian conduct at all times. Sponsors should consider themselves the spiritual shepherd to their students while at Extravaganza. Joining in worship, praying at the altars, and nightly devotions and prayer are elements necessary for a good spiritual leader. Sponsors should also report any spiritual victories to their youth pastor and senior pastor.

REGISTRATION

All teens, adults, and children must register for the event via the online registration system at snuextravaganza.com

Registration at Extravaganza for both pre-registered and late individuals will take place in the Commons on Thursday from 6 to 9 p.m. and following the opening worship service. The final time to register a student is 8am-10am on Friday morning in the Commons. No students will be allowed to participate in competition if they attempt to register after this deadline.

Students will not be allowed to participate in any competition until they are registered and are wearing an Extravaganza wristband.

HOUSING

This is the responsibility of the district and/or church.

WORSHIP SERVICES

Extravaganza worship services are required attendance for registered participants.

DISQUALIFICATIONS

The Regional NYI Council reserves the right to disqualify any student or team that does not exhibit a Christian attitude on or off the playing field.

EXTRAVAGANZA CENTRAL

Extravaganza Central is in the Heritage Room of the Commons. This is the place to find tournament information and lost and found and contact any District President.

LOST AND FOUND

Lost and Found will be located at Extravaganza Central.

CURFEW

Curfew is 30 minutes following the last scheduled event. Registrants may not leave their place of lodging after curfew. Everyone is responsible to adhering to this curfew and the city of Bethany's enforced curfew in cooperation with SNU Security.

HOTEL GUIDELINES

All persons staying in hotels are expected to exhibit a Christian attitude in their actions and words. Noise should be kept to a minimum at all times. There should be NO loud talking in the hallways after 11:00 p.m. or before 9:00 a.m. Unless an adult sponsor is present, males are not allowed in females' rooms or vice versa.

GYMNASIUM RULES

No food, drink, or black soled shoes are allowed in any of the gymnasiums used for Extravaganza. Valuables should be left with sponsors or coaches.

ILLNESS

A School Nurse is on call during the event. The nurse's office is located on the bottom floor of the Commons. The nurse phone # is 491-6605 or go to the Information Tent for assistance.

QUIZZING

Mission and Purpose of Bible Quizzing*

To encourage meaningful Bible study.

To increase fellowship and interaction among youth around the world

To become a part of the outreach and discipleship aspects of the local church youth ministry.

To provide a medium for training and mentoring youth leadership.

To encourage active participation in ministry and mission projects.

To bridge relationships between youth of different world regions.

To provide an arena for exciting Christian competition.

Rules for Competing at Field Quiz

All regional competition shall follow the rules set forth in the *Official Rules and Guidelines

Levels of competition shall be determined by the field quiz director prior to field competition.

When two levels of competition are provided, the levels shall be defined as follows:

“A” division quizzing will consist of those teams that are considered to be the experienced and/or top district teams.

“B” division quizzing will consist of all other district teams wishing to compete at the regional competition.

Each district may select as many teams as it chooses to compete at the regional competition.

Districts may enter their teams in their choice of "A" or "B" divisions. Only those quizzers competing in the “A” division are eligible to compete for placement on the regional quiz team.

The Tournament: Quizzing competition will consist of a round-robin tournament.

Should more than one level of competition exist, each level shall have a round-robin team competition. Round-robin competition will determine the individual placement for both the regional awards and qualification for the regional team competition.

Round-robin competition will determine the team placement for the elimination tournament.

Partial round-robin competition will be allowed if time and/or resources do not allow for a full round-robin.

An elimination-style tournament shall be held following the round-robin competition.

The style of the elimination tournament shall be decided and announced by the regional quiz director prior to regional competition.

The elimination tournament will determine the final team standings for the regional competition.

Determining the Regional Team

A South Central regional “All Star” team(s) will be chosen to compete at the yearly national competition, (i.e. General Assembly, NYC, and national invitational quizzes during the off years).

The regional team(s) shall be chosen based upon one of the approved methods as set forth in the Official Rules and Guidelines ^{}.

- Adaptations of the approved methods may be made by the regional quiz director and will be announced prior to regional competition.

The regional “All Star” team(s) may be chosen at Extravaganza or on an alternative date. Should an alternative date be chosen, sufficient notice will be provided to the district quiz directors of the change.

Coaching the Regional Quiz Team

The regional quiz director will coach the regional team(s) at the national tournament. Should the regional director choose not to coach the teams or should an additional coach be needed, the regional director may appoint an additional and/or alternate to serve as coach.

T ALENT

We are so excited to see the outstanding talent for Extravaganza. Listed below is the schedule for each of the rounds of competition. Each area of competition will be judged by one adult and one to three college students in that area of study. If a student receives a majority vote of 1 they will move on to Round 2 on Sunday. Medals will be given out to those who receive a 1 in Round 1 and Round 2. We look forward to meeting each of you!

- All Talent time-slot sign ups will take place at registration/check-in
- Round one for all talent will compete Friday from 8:00am to 5:00pm
 - o Scores will be posted in the commons following the evening service
- Round two competition will compete Saturday from 12:30pm to 2:00pm
 - o Round two scores will be posted in the commons Sunday after 2:00pm.
- A select few will be chosen from Round two to perform in THE SHOW on Saturday evening at 4 p.m. in Herrick Auditorium.
- All talent entries will be judged using the following number system, based on a 1-5 scale, with 1 being superior. This system should give judges more room to adequately evaluate the presentation.
- Each student may compete in multiple talent categories, but may only enter one (1) entry per category.
- The deadline for all talent registrations will be 10:00 AM on the opening day of competition.
- Each participating student must be present to sign up for their individual time slots at registration. Please do not send one representative to sign in the “whole group”.
